

HISTORIC FLAG INCIDENTS

The Spirit of '76

This picture is more than an incident, it is an inspiration. It depicts the spirit which, in the trying days of our young Republic, moved men, for sheer love of Liberty and love of Country, to march unflinchingly and carry the Flag of Freedom in the face of almost certain death. Liberty, with Death as the only alternative.

This is Patriotism, and Patriotism of this sort isn't dead. It but requires an OCCASION when it will be found that the American spirit—the Spirit of '76—will blossom forth as strong and virile as ever it did in the darkest days of the Revolution.

There are many occasions upon which you can show YOUR Patriotism. Not, perhaps, by deeds of blood and glory, but you can, by a simpler and yet effective way, show that the spirit of '76 is alive in YOU.

On every National, State or Civic Holiday you can
SHOW THE FLAG
And Thereby Show Your Patriotism

WATERBURY

To-morrow is mother's day at the Methodist Episcopal church and there will be a special service with appropriate sermon by the pastor, Rev. V. L. Smith. In the evening he will give the third lecture of the series on "Paul, the Pioneer Preacher."

At St. Andrew's church services will be as usual, Rev. Robert Devoy, pastor.

At the Congregational church the pastor, Rev. William L. Boicourt, will preach upon the theme, "Some Dangerous Crossings—Stop, Look, Listen."

This evening in the social room of the Congregational church the Hochelaga campfire girls will give a demonstration in bandaging after months of skilled direction. This exhibition will be given in the form of a playlet. There will be songs by the campfire girls, assisted by Miss Christina Kane and Mrs. Roy W. Demeritt. There will also be a sale of candy and fancy articles. At the close, an auction of pies made by the campfire girls will take place.

The condition of Judge Huntley remains comfortable.

The funeral of John S. Fowler was held from his late home Friday afternoon, Rev. William L. Boicourt officiating. The burial was under Mentor lodge, I. O. O. F., the ritual work being given by Charles T. Graves and E. G. Miller. Bearers were members of that order. Among those present from out of town were the four brothers of the deceased, Jerry Fowler and Delbert Fowler of Benson, Eugene Fowler of Orwell and Benjamin Fowler of Rutland; also his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roberts of Orwell, and Mrs. Fowler's father and sister's family, Edson B. Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Durfee of Bristol.

B. J. Berry was in Moretown yesterday for the burial of his grandmother, Mrs. Almira Pierce. The remains were accompanied from East Orleans by members of the family of D. B. Dwinell, Mr. Dwinell having recovered from his recent illness enough to take the trip.

BETHEL

Thursday Night's Wind Did Considerably Damage.

A high wind Thursday night blew several trees or large limbs on the electric light and power transmission line between here and Randolph. As a result Randolph was in darkness all the evening. Repairs were made in time for the day service yesterday. The service of the Bethel Telephone company was somewhat crippled by broken and crossed wires. Part of the roof of a large barn at F. A. Northrop's was blown off and his cow barn was blown over.

Mrs. Mary Parker is visiting in Rutland.

Adam Maynard is confined to the house with heart disease.

Mrs. Laura F. Kezer of Rochester was here yesterday to promote the organization of a branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance union.

Joseph G. Fuller began work Wednesday for the Vermont Farm Machine company at Bellows Falls.

Fred S. Brown, a Stockbridge farmer, and former resident of this town, married last Wednesday Miss Bertha Green of Stockbridge.

Walter Sawyer has returned to John Morse's after a six weeks' absence in Manchester, N. H.

E. C. Fisher and F. D. Tuttle of Boston arrived yesterday on business connected with the tannery.

G. A. Doubleday and A. C. Sterling of Montpelier were business visitors yesterday.

Elton McGowan of Bellows Falls, who visits at Fred Whitney's, was working on a transformer at Bellows Falls during a thunder storm last Sunday when he received a shock which at first did not seem serious. Later his eyes became affected and were so much swollen that he could see nothing. The news yesterday was that a specialist had said that probably he would recover his sight.

Miss Hazel Williamson entertained the members of her Sunday school class this afternoon.

Hugh Batchelder came Wednesday from Windsor, where he works, to recover from the effects of emery in his eyes.

Miss Marjorie Douglass of Concord, N. H., is visiting her grandfather, Moses Cluke.

Republican caucus notices signed by R. J. Flint, R. M. Chase and A. L. Cady, members of the town committee, and Democratic caucus notices signed by D. A. Wilson and D. D. Smith for the town committee, have been posted, calling the caucuses for next Tuesday afternoon.

SOUTH RYEGATE

Rev. D. M. McKinlay attended the C. E. convention at Barnet Saturday as delegate from the C. E. society of the U. F. church. He remained in Barnet until Tuesday, visiting friends.

Mrs. Ernest Keenan is quite sick. Mr. Keenan was called from St. Johnsbury Wednesday by news of her illness, but at this writing she is somewhat improved.

Mrs. A. R. Bone is laid up with a bad attack of lumbago. Miss Ellen Bone has been assisting her for a few days.

Mother's day will be observed Sunday in the Presbyterian church. A special program is being arranged with appropriate music and a short address by the pastor.

Mrs. Gardner Boyd has given up her work as choir leader and pianist in the Presbyterian church, and Miss Mattie Hatch is now acting as pianist.

Mrs. Charles Ord of Barre spent Monday and Tuesday in town to complete the business of selling her house. Ben Hudson, who now occupies the Ord house, plans to move June 1 into Ernest Keenan's house, Mr. Keenan expecting to move his family to St. Johnsbury by that time.

Rev. James McInnes of Manchester, N. H., synodical missionary, spoke at the union service Sunday evening on his work among the lumbermen. His address was much enjoyed by the large number present. After a day's fishing in Newbury waters, Mr. McInnes returned to Manchester Monday on the evening train.

C. R. Taggart, "the man from Vermont," as he is now known all over the country through his able work as an all-around entertainer for lyceum bureaus and chautauquas, will give an entertainment in the U. F. church Friday evening, May 19.

Dr. Herman Bone of Gardner, Mass., made his parents here a short visit on Thursday. Dr. Bone was called to Wells

SOUTH CABOT

Mrs. Hiram Darling of East Hardwick is stopping at her father's for a few days.

Mrs. Sidney Colverth of Marshfield hill and daughter, Alice Rathbone of Woodstock, were visitors Thursday at D. A. Colverth's.

Howard Tanner of Marshfield and Mr. Gillette of Burlington were in the place Thursday on business.

Ella Putnam visited friends in Cabot Monday.

Arthur Lemaire and Peter Hamel of Lanesboro were at E. M. Putnam's Thursday.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Gifted with that peculiar faculty of sensing exactly what is of absorbing interest, Lyman H. Howe's travel festival which comes to the Grange hall on May 17, can always be relied upon for an evening of unalloyed pleasure for young and old. Besides pictorial pilgrimages of rare charm to Madeira, Italy, France, Holland, Switzerland, the Fifth of Forth bridge, Scotland, and to our own Glacier National park, the new program also includes some distinct novelties such as the crystallization of different metals, and most amazing of all a new demonstration of the possibilities of motion photography showing the movements of animals so slow that the eye can detect every detail which is impossible at the high speed at which these animals move normally. Thrills are also provided by a ride in an aeroplane above the clouds, the perils of ascent of perpendicular cliffs by fearless mountain climbers and the struggle of a torpedo boat through a raging sea.—adv.

The board of civil authority will meet at the town clerk's office Saturday afternoon, May 13, at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of placing names on the checklist, and also for any other business which may come before them.—adv.
